

Ann Gardiner

KEY QUALIFICATIONS

- ✓ More than twenty years' experience in delivering and evaluating energy climate and policy solutions for a range of organisations
- ✓ Extensive experience in managing complex projects and proposals
- ✓ Expertise in analysing complex information to draw strategic conclusions
- ✓ Experienced communicator of technical concepts and policy to specialist and non-specialist audiences
- ✓ Experience of assembling and managing international and multi-disciplinary teams

PROJECTS AND CLIENTS

- ✓ Energy and climate policy development: Nationally Appropriate Mitigation Action development, energy efficiency policy, industrial energy efficiency policy, low-carbon heat policy, impact assessments
- ✓ Strategy: Climate strategy development, development of strategic positions
- ✓ Analysis to underpin policy design: development of Marginal Abatement Cost Curves, analysis of energy prices, costs and subsidies, quantification of potential savings from implementation of technologies and from commitments by cities, businesses and civil society
- ✓ Climate Change: Role of non-state actors in international climate action, implications of scientific studies for policy makers and NGOs, evaluation of climate related development programmes
- ✓ Clients: European Commission, National governments, WWF, European Investment Bank, UNFCCC secretariat, World Bank, Nordic Council of Ministers, CDP, Sitra (Finnish investment fund), UNEP

WORK HISTORY

- 2017 - present Associate SQ Consult, the Netherlands
- 2017 - present Founder AG Climate & Energy Ltd, UK
- 2006- 2017 Ecofys, various managerial and consultancy, UK
- 1998 - 2006 Future Energy Solutions (now Ricardo), various managerial and consultancy positions, UK.
- 1987- 1998 AEA Technology, Project Manager, UK

EDUCATION

- 1980 - 1983 University of Durham, Physics BSc Hons 1st Class